

Nestled in the rolling hills of southwestern Wisconsin, the apple orchards of Richland Hills produce some of the world's finest apples. This region, also known for spectacular dairy farms, enjoys the old fashioned reputation of producing only the best that the partnership of nature and man can achieve. Treat your customers or students to the best that Wisconsin has to offer... Apples from Richland Hills

Richland Hills fresh sliced apples are sweet and juicy apples that are chilled crisp, pre-cut into slices, treated to halt browning, and rushed to you to maintain the highest level of freshness.
